

CV

Samuel Spreen

CIO Commercial Banking

Commerzbank AG

COMMERZBANK

CV

As CIO Commercial Banking at Commerzbank AG Sam has responsibility for the Retail and Small Business Customers and the respective back office settlement functions. Besides, Sam is in charge for IT- platforms and workplace services – including the global Outsourcing Contract with DXC Technology (formerly HPE).

Spreen started his professional career with a bank apprenticeship. After his studies of Business Administration at the University of Mannheim he joined the consulting company Accenture where he primarily worked in the context of private and commercial banking.

Since 2005 Sam owned couple of management positions within the Commerzbank Group – between 2006 and 2010 he was CIO of Eurohypo AG.

Commerzbank at a glance

Commerzbank is a leading international commercial bank with branches and offices in almost 50 countries. With the two business segments Private and Small-Business Customers, as well as Corporate Clients, the Bank offers a comprehensive portfolio of financial services to its clients.

Commerzbank finances 30 per cent of Germany's foreign trade and is leading in financing for corporate clients in Germany. With its subsidiaries Comdirect in Germany and Poland's mBank it owns two of the world's most innovative online banks.

With approximately 1,000 branches Commerzbank has one of the densest branch networks among German private banks. In total, Commerzbank serves more than 17.5 million private and small business customers, as well as more than 60,000 corporate clients, multinationals, financial service providers and institutional clients. In 2016, it generated gross revenues of 9.4 billion Euro with approximately 49,900 employees.